

THE WEEKLY COUNTY PRESS

ARIES March 21-April 19

You've gotta go deep, Aries. You have feels that need tending to, and they're not down to wait another minute. You can rationalize your yearnings and pain, but that will only serve to keep them at arm's length, unresolved, and wearing you down. Let go and see what happens this week. Allow for your feelings to be just be what they are – even if they suck – without explaining them away. You can't make others like you or agree with where you're coming from, and that's OK.

TAURUS April 20-May 20

This week's Lunar Eclipse on the 16th is going to kick up all the feels, including self-doubt, anxiety, and other confusions. When you're drained, it's really hard to see creative solutions. Take a break, Taurus. Put everything down and unplug yourself completely on the 16th; allow yourself the space to catch up with what you think, where your heart is, and what you need. Not knowing what comes next doesn't mean that things are bad. Be patient, pal.

GEMINI May 21-June 21

What do you want, Twin Star? You're carving out a path for yourself, and you'd better be into what you're creating. Take the time this week to organize where you put your time. Make certain that you want the things you're investing in; and if you find that you don't, you can use the Full Moon energies on the 16th to give a big heave-ho to your busted habits and attitudes. Get it together, so you can work it out.

CANCER June 22-July 22

As a Moonchild it'd be easy to think that full Moons are your jam. This week may find you all wrapped up in your head when your heart's too full. Instead of seeking solutions, strive to seek peace of mind. Bring awareness to your situations so that you can fully accept them. This is the first step to being able to make changes from a peaceful place within you instead of a primarily reactive place. Keep your full moon crazy to a minimum by tending to your inner self first and foremost.

LEO July 23-Aug. 22

When you lead with your ego, you can feel better and even make others feel good too, but that stuff tends to live on a short leash. Be wary of Band-Aids for bullet wounds this week. How you handle the feels of a Lunar Eclipse has a long-term impact on your life, and it's far more important to be your whole self and to be totally real than it is to get along with the greatest ease. Take the high road, even if it's the longer road this week.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22

When you put yourself out there and try for love, success, or happiness, you end up risking failure and disappointment. Don't let the fear of what might go wrong stop you from seeking what could be so very right, Virgo. This week your relationships are going to offer a great opportunity to show up in new and more courageous ways. File away that scared, editorial voice in your head, and put yourself out there in authentic and even optimistic ways.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22

On the path to seeking what's right for you, you've gotta consider the possibly wrong options too. Don't be so hard on yourself that you limit your investigations to what seems easily obtainable, Libra. If you're going to innovate a new path or even a new approach to something, you're gonna need to be willing to explore everything. Use your body as a litmus test this week, especially around the Eclipse on the 16th. Listen to what all of your resources are communicating to you for best results.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21

This week is a ripe time to get intimate. Pour yourself into your love relationships, whether they're with people, your creativity, or your own durn self. The playful, present parts of you are powerful, Scorpio. Put away your distractions and connect with the stuff of your greatest happiness that's at the source of your best self. The Lunar Eclipse on the 16th is likely to reveal something meaningful to you, but you don't have to do a thing to make it happen. Strive to be receptive instead of reactive this week.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21=

How can you embrace limitations when they give you serious FOMO (Fear Of Missing Out)? It's only by focusing on what you get from a choice that you can make peace with all of the things that you're not choosing, 'Tarius. This week is bringing up real feels so that you can come to peace with what you did or didn't do in the not so distant past. You're ready to move on, so stop trying to change the past; your future is waiting for you with open arms, lover.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19

If you're in a rush to get it done, you're not being truly open to the process. Unless it's absolutely necessary to speed things up, try and tolerate the thoughts and preoccupations that come up from things slogging along. Not having all the information doesn't mean that you're about to get bad news. This week, how you take care of yourself and what kind of friend you are to your worries, is hella up; so rise to the occasion, Cappy.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18

How you relate to your fears and how you negotiate power are on the chopping block, Aquarius. Think back over the course of this past year, and consider how far you've come; some of what you've done is working out well for you, but other things still need adjustment. Don't get caught up in assigning a narrative to your feelings this week. You need to engage in revisions and edits, but that's not a failure, just a pain in the ass. Patiently get to work, my friend.

PISCES Feb. 19-March 20

The truth is true whether you wanna deal with it or not. Instead of judging yourself or your situation, try acceptance instead. This week's Lunar Eclipse on the 16th is happening in your sign, giving you a unique opportunity to let go of the attitudes and feelings that've been holding you back. Don't let fear or uncertainty inhibit you, Pisces. You are a powerful person, capable of great things. Honor your potential, especially where you've been fearful.

See you next week.....
